

Lorna Barrow Transformational Speaker

At one point early in her working life Lorna did not have a bank account. That was because her self-esteem was so low, she was intimidated by the atmosphere in the bank.

But she always had a burning desire to leave a footprint on this life that was bigger than the size of her tiny feet.

Today, she combines the speaking skills she learnt with her life experiences and lessons, to consistently deliver a high-energy, transformational message. She encourages you to believe in yourself, find your hidden talents and use them to reach your best “self”.

Over the years, Lorna had delivered hundreds of technical, informative, persuasive and transformational speeches, across her native Caribbean, across the United States and several countries in Europe.

She leverages her in-your-face personality, her contagious sense of humour and her deep passion to help you find and release the best of yourself.

In the words of Wilma Clement, Tutor:

“Lorna is truly an engaging and entertaining speaker who leaves you with a larger vision of yourself!”

No wonder she is truly the transformational speaker you want to hear...
